

During the college track, students will be given the tools to help them make the right decisions in just about any context. We will cover three topics that are related to the theme of "living out": God's Will, Assurance of Faith, and Moral Absolutes. These topics, together with Q&A times, will give us a biblical paradigm and worldview that we can live and make decisions by.

TRACK SESSIONS

Living Out God's Will: God's Will for My Life

Speaker: Rev. Steve Choi

The number one question for collegians is, "What is God's will for my life?" We know that Jesus wants for us a life that is abundant and blessed. However, many have misunderstood those terms to mean riches, abundance and comfort. Pastor Steve will teach what a blessed and abundant life really looks like from the Bible. If you are at a crossroads, you will benefit greatly from this session.

Living Out In Certainty: Certainty in my Faith/Defending Our Faith

Speaker: Pastor Benjamin Shin

The University setting is supposed to be a place open to dialogue about new and differing thoughts. Unfortunately, when it comes to discussing Christianity, the topic is usually dismissed or confronted with much hostility. Some would suggest that there are no good reasons or objective propositions within Christianity or religion in general. It has thus been reduced to a "leap of faith". Professor Benjamin Shin will give a defense for the case for Christianity and will provide rational answers to tough questions or objections made by skeptics and atheists.

Title: Purity or Piety?

Speaker: Ms. Kathy Khang

As Christians we can spend a lot of time talking about purity, but God also calls us to action - to love our neighbor as ourselves. Join us as author, speaker, and campus minister Kathy Khang takes us through

Scripture for a deeper understanding of God's call to purity and mission.

Panel Discussion and Q&A

Rev. Steve Choi, Prof. Benjamin Shin, Ms. Kathy Khang

During this last session we will be having a Q and A session with all three speakers. Questions will be collected in the first 3 sessions and the most popular questions will be chosen and answered from a biblical perspective in a practical manner.
